

VICTORIA REGIONAL PICKLEBALL ASSOCIATION
VRPA (vicrpa@gmail.com)

What's in it for you?

VRPA aims to:

- represent pickleballers in discussions and negotiations with municipalities and specific venues
- increase the number of indoor and outdoor venues
- advocate (with municipalities) for dedicated outdoor courts
- support player development through organizing tournaments, clinics ladders, and leagues

Why a non-profit society?

Municipal authorities and recreation centres have non-profit rates and will give credible associations a voice when decisions regarding facilities are made.

What does it cost?

A one time initiation fee of $10 plus an annual fee of $10.

What does the fee cover?

The fee will allow the organization to function. As the VRPA grows and offers clinics, tournaments, etc. it will require funds to pay for such things as web hosting for communications, equipment, liability insurance, and the like.

I've already paid for a pass to play pickleball. Will I have to pay more?

The VRPA fee allows the organization to function. Additional fees, at a preferred rate, for specific activities such as clinics, tournaments, etc. will apply.

How do I contribute by joining?

Go to <http://www.victoriapickleball.org/vrpa.html> to sign up electronically or print and complete the next page and pay via e-transfer. Alternatively, submit the next page plus $20 to any VRPA Board member – Trish Main, Denis Harrigan, Jan Bergen, Suzanne Creighton, Heather Hood, Malcolm Macaulay, Al Thomson.
